

Alpine Graphic Apparel Acquires Personally Yours of the Triad, Inc.

High Point corporate logo clothing and accessories supplier, Alpine Graphic Apparel, Inc., has announced the acquisition of Personally Yours of the Triad, Inc.

High Point, NC, July 15, 2008 – Alpine Graphic Apparel, Inc., has acquired Personally Yours of the Triad, Inc., a custom advertising specialty business. The transition was finalized on May 6, 2008. The acquisition strengthens Alpine's custom promotional product department and compliments its already thriving embroidered clothing and screen-printing business.

With the acquisition, Alpine has enlarged its office space by some 50% to accommodate four new employees and created a new showroom to showcase its embroidered, screen printed and promotional items. The firm has expanded its facilities two other times in the past seven years and continues to add staff and the latest embroidery equipment as its national client base grows.

"Alpine's embroidered clothing strength compliments perfectly Personally Yours years of experience in promotional products," said Alpine president, Don Allen. "Promotional products and personalized gifts have always been about 10 percent of our business and it was 90 percent of the Personally Yours business. What a great fit."
