

Saint Paul

A L M A N A C

“A compendium of local event calendars, resources and tips, combined with personal stories, history and secrets. All that, and plenty of room to scribble your own plans, insights and lists.”

— STAR TRIBUNE

Saint Paul stories, poems, and photo contributors include: Garrison Keillor • Alexs Pate • Patricia Hampl • Carol Connolly • Jim Moore • Phebe Hanson • Mahmoud El-Kati • Deborah Keenan and many more.

At 368 pages, the 2009 edition includes information on music and art festivals, galleries, marathons, the RollerGirls, Planet Squeezebox accordions, how to make goobers—and so much more. Work was solicited from both practicing writers and regular folks who have something personal to say about Saint Paul, capturing a viewpoint that reflects the city's unique character.

“A practical, informative, and at times personal reference of all things St. Paul.”

— CITY PAGES

The Almanac includes: Maps • Theater • Calendar • Historic Sites • Annual Events • Museums • Restaurants • and much more! Included is a datebook with Saint Paul happenings and events listed throughout the calendar year. There's also plenty of room to pen in your appointments. You can schedule your out-of-town excursions around your favorite Saint Paul activities, like the Winter Carnival, the Saint Paul Classic Bike Tour, or the Festival of Nations.

Read it, write in it. Wherever you go, bring the Saint Paul Almanac with you! The Saint Paul Almanac is home-grown—find it in your neighborhood bookstore, coffee shop or gift store or online at saintpaulalmanac.com. The Saint Paul Almanac is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Your contribution is tax deductible!

“Important dates and even cheese-curd haikus. Pig's Eye never seemed crazier.”

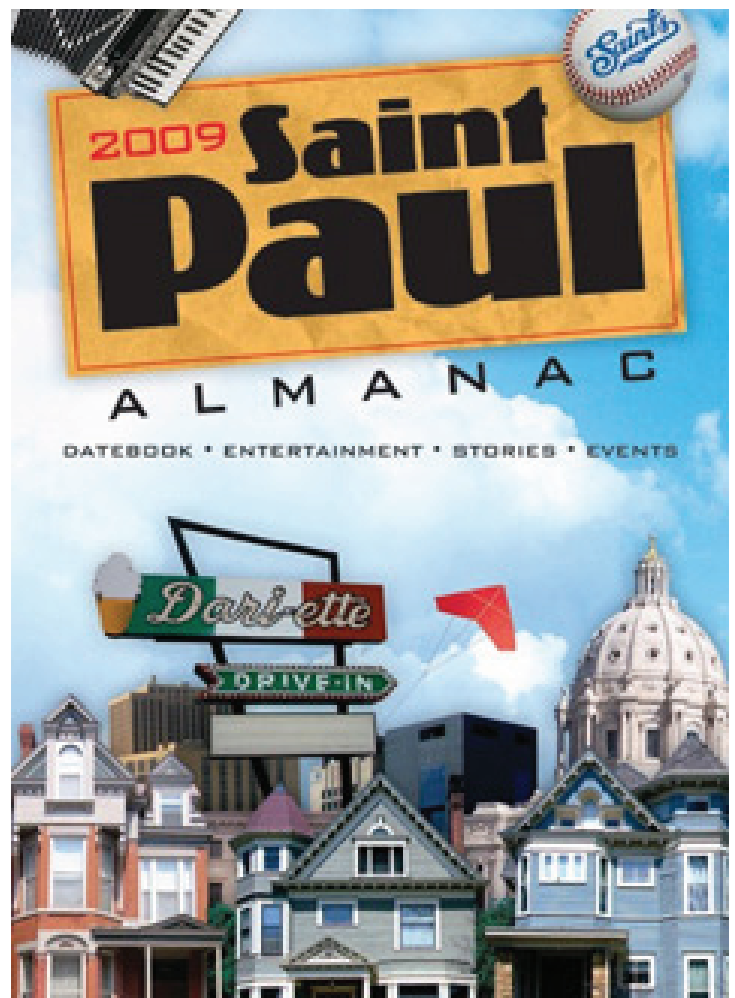

— MINNESOTA MONTHLY

“Just about the most comprehensive book about Saint Paul you'll ever need”

— PIONEER PRESS

The Saint Paul Almanac is an annual calendar and guide to take the curious urban adventurer through the year in Minnesota's capital city. In the current rush to make everything global and generic, the Saint Paul Almanac seeks to do just the opposite, celebrating our ma-and-pa restaurants, our corner bars, our baseball team, our small-town manners, and our big-city ways.

We Saint Paulites are a quirky bunch, and the Almanac embraces the paradoxes in our marvelous community of diverse neighborhoods and local businesses. The Almanac brings you Saint Paul stories, old and new. The Saint Paul Almanac brings you the voices of people who know and love the city. The Almanac gives the low-down on various facets of the city, from the rebirth of Lowertown to stories about growing up on the East Side.

“You'll never have to hit a chain restaurant in St. Paul again.”

— METRO