

OMDCnet®

A Global Trade and International Business Information Portal

OMDCnet® Membership

OMDCnet® Membership, the focal point of our global trade portal community, is available to all Registered Users. Membership is your gateway to a richer and more productive portal experience.

If you are actively involved or interested in the business of global trade, OMDCnet® Membership can help you identify qualified distributors, products, services, information sources, market intelligence, foreign partners and more. With membership, you gain access to a range of exclusive value-added features not available to our general visitors or registered users.

OMDCnet® Membership exclusive features are designed to save you time, keep you informed, reduce your costs, increase your international exposure, and provide you with qualified leads.

Advantages of the OMDCnet® Membership include:

- The OMDCnet® Search results automatically include previously restricted content that was not available to view at the general visitor or Registered User level
- Free access for a year to the OMDCnet® Global Trade Portal premium member features
- Access to additional global trade directories such as importers, distributors, and sales representatives
- Discounts on Overseas Market Development Corporation products and services
- Ability to submit your news, articles, and company link directly to the portal

Examples of special features available to OMDCnet® Members are:

- The Global Directories links can be filtered by country
- Discussion forum exclusive to OMDCnet® Members and VIP Subscribers
-  Unverified Company Links – This rating is applied if we are unable to independently verify the company information.
-  Qualified Company Links – This rating is applied after the company information is verified and independently confirmed by OMDCnet®.
-  Recommended Company Links – This rating is applied after the company information is verified, analyzed, independently confirmed, and more.

Over the course of the year, you will notice substantial content additions and exciting new projects designed to help our OMDCnet® Member community in *Building Global Alliances*SM. We invite you to become a member today.

To learn more about the options available for OMDCnet® Membership, please click the Become A Member link on the left sidebar after you login to the OMDCnet® Portal as a Registered User.
