CodePartners Information Technology Announces Sponsorship of Sage Vision 08

Dallas, TX – October 14, 2008 – CodePartners, a software development firm with offices in Beijing, China and Dallas, Texas, is pleased to announce their sponsorship of Sage Asia's annual business partner conference, Sage Vision 08. The conference will be held 3-8 November, 2008 in Kota Kinabalu, Malaysia.

 Attendees will have the opportunity to visit with CodePartners' software development consultants in the trade show area and learn about the services offered. Additionally, CodePartners' has a variety of catalog components designed for Sage Accpac ERP and SageCRM that attendees can review.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for us to connect with the Asian-based Sage reseller community," said Brian Terrell, CPA and founder of CodePartners. "In working with Sage business partners across the globe we have found that oftentimes having the ability to make a small enhancement or change to the product will help the business partner add a new client or keep an existing client happy. CodePartners is able to do this very effectively."

Sage Vision 08's theme is Agility, Diversity and Continuity. The conference gives Sage's business partners the opportunity to collaborate and learn about the many products and services available to help make their clients more successful. The conference will be held at Shangri-La's Tanjung Aru Resort and Spa.
