

Abso Receives AutoNation's Best Technology Award

Outstanding Service and Technology Exceed Expectations and Improves Efficiency.

Roseville, CA (PRWEB) October 28, 2008 -- Abso, a leading provider of integrated talent management solutions, received the Best Technology Award from AutoNation, an annual recognition of select suppliers who exceed expectations. AutoNation recognized Abso's outstanding service and honored the company as a "distinguished supplier-partner for excellence."

AutoNation conducted an internal survey to assess the importance of Abso's talent management application in their staff's daily activities, the application's ease of use, the frequency of communication with Abso contacts, the speed of turnaround time for screening reports, and the quality of reports and services received by Abso. The Best Technology Award reflects the integral role Abso talent management software and customer support plays in helping AutoNation work efficiently.

"We are proud to be recognized by AutoNation as a supplier of excellence. At Abso, we believe quality talent management and screening solutions depend on a combination of leading technology and personalized, expert service. The Best Technology Award affirms that our team delivers the best of technology and outstanding service," stated David Dickson, Vice President of Market Operations at Abso.
