

Certification

IPAPI CPP™ and IPAPI CPM™. We support the development of process professionalism through our competency-based certifications. IPAPI develops and ministers certification for the IPAPI CPP™ (Certified Process Professional) designation and the IPAPI CPM™ (Certified Process Manager) designation.

Training

IPAPI develops training materials, programs, and supporting resources to promote the use and application of process techniques that make our lives (and our customers lives) simpler, easier and more successful.

Community Development

IPAPI is committed to being an active and vibrant community of process professionals. We offer comprehensive social networking and traditional networking services to our members to help them make key contacts, advance their skills, and actively participate in the development of our community and community resources.

Research, Development and Publication

IPAPI conducts on going research, analysis and development on process impacts relevant to the world we live in. IPAPI also publishes materials from our research program in a variety of forms on a periodic basis.

We are inspired by....

Leonardo da Vinci

"Simplicity is the Ultimate Sophistication."

Albert Einstein

"Make everything as simple as possible, but no simpler."

Corporate Overview

The International Process and Performance Institute (IPAPI) is not-for-profit professional community dedicated to the improvement of process for personal, organizational and customer success.

Overview

- ❖ The International Process and Performance Institute (IPAPI) is a membership organization helping people, organizations and their customers improve their quality of life through process improvement. The Institute is dedicated to making people's lives simpler, easier and more successful.

Advocacy

- ❖ IPAPI is the world's leading not-for-profit association focused on process improvement through the elimination of causes of work and customer alignment of process. IPAPI supports commercial, non-commercial, governmental, and academic interests on a global basis, helping them to understand and incorporate the advanced concepts of process management into their activities and programs.

Body of Knowledge

- ❖ Part of IPAPI's mission is the ongoing development of comprehensive knowledge resources our members and the process community at large need to continually grow the success of their work and their organizations. An example of this body of knowledge is the IPAPI Wiki developed by IPAPI members and accessible to anyone.

Research and Development

- ❖ IPAPI performs research and analysis on a regular basis to evolve the breadth, depth and relevancy of the process approaches used for optimizing, aligning and innovating on process.

Knowledge Sharing – A Global Network

- ❖ IPAPI employs the latest social networking tools and techniques to create a virtual process home for our members; where members can actively grow, share and learn from each other on a broad range of subjects, Special Interest Groups, the IPAPI Wiki, and targeted groups.

About Dallas/Grapevine

Our main office is located in Grapevine Texas, part of the Dallas Metroplex. The Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex (DFW as it is called locally) sprawls across the North Texas plains in the heart of the Old West. This is also our training venue for Dallas, and it is truly unique. Only minutes away from DFW Airport, we serve the Dallas area with training in Historic Downtown Grapevine Texas!
