JOEL KIBBLE SHINES IN 2009

B. Reel Media Management Congratulates the Motivational Speaker and Member of Take 6 on Grammy Nominations and Announces Plans for 2009

(Washington D.C.) B. Reel Media Management, LLC (BRMM) is pleased to announce that their client Joel Kibble, a member of the multiple award-winning vocal group Take 6 has been nominated for three 2009 Grammy awards in the following categories: Best Gospel Performance, for "Shall We Gather At The River"; Best Instrumental Arrangement Accompanying Vocalist(s) for "Grace"; and Best Jazz Instrumental Solo "Seven Steps To Heaven". Kibble reflects, "For a Christian group to be recognized like that [multiple Grammy awards] is a huge honor. But you don't let it go to your head."

Stacia Wright, BRMM President and CEO enthuses, "2009 is shaping up to be an outstanding year for Joel. In addition to being a part of the most nominated singing group in Grammy history, he is planning to release an inspirational book and will continue to motivating others by speaking around the country as well as overseas." The upcoming book will be an expansion of Kibble's former blog series on the Take 6 website.

About Joel Kibble

As an insider in the music industry for almost twenty years Kibble is thoroughly acquainted with the strategies of successful teamwork. Whether singing with the six member vocal group Take 6, producing, writing, or speaking, his focus is on excellence. As a motivational speaker he addresses how to break the cycles that hinder success. Kibble has been speaking since he was a college student. He is also an active leader and supporter of programs that mentor, motivate, and empower troubled youth.
