

E-Commerce Transaction Portfolio Acquisition Opportunity

Patent portfolio offered related to online exchanges, electronic trading and supply chain management platforms

Portland, Oregon (January 8, 2009) -- Global Technology Transfer Group, Inc. (GTT), the world leader in patent asset services, announces the availability of the E-Commerce Transaction Portfolio in the online exchange, electronic trading and supply chain segments.

The patent portfolio consists of two issued US patents with early priority dates. The portfolio discloses methods by which traders, intermediaries, and marketplaces are automatically connected through a software platform. The patents also provide a credibility and efficiency mechanism for participants in cross-market trading. The trust rating aspect is a widely adopted feature in consumer electronic marketplaces.

"E-Commerce and other electronic business platforms are an integral part of daily life. This patent portfolio is an essential part of the internet marketplace," states Michael Lubitz, CEO and Chairman of GTT.
