

Follow Kodak throughout the Inauguration

Click here to follow the experiences of our featured bloggers

A Historic Kodak Moment

Kodak Celebrates Another Momentous Occasion with Your Family

Kodak has captured some of the most iconic moments of our lifetime. In recognition of the historic Inauguration of president-elect Barack Obama, Kodak wants to capture and celebrate this momentous occasion with the world.

People always remember what they were doing when a historic event occurred. So when you experience the Inauguration with your family or friends, don't just remember the moment—Kodak invites you to capture it and share it with those who matter most.

Renowned Photographers Share Their Personal Experiences

Bio

Bob McNeely

Bio

Ben Fernandez

Click Here to View More of Bob's Photos

Click Here to View More of Ben's Photos

Starting January 20th, click here to view images as Bob captures the historical Inauguration of Barack Obama as the 44th President of the United States

Copyright Benedict J. Fernandez

Copyright Benedict J. Fernandez

Copyright Benedict J. Fernandez

Contact Information

Nancy Carr, Kodak
nancy.carr@kodak.com

Suzanne Lyons, Ketchum
suzanne.lyons@ketchum.com

Official Obama Inaugural Photo Book Project

Some of the world's most influential photographers — for the first time ever — will be documenting their personal celebrations of President-elect Obama's inauguration festivities and they want YOU to get involved. Share your photos with the rest of the nation at www.obamaphotobook.com