

How a Movie is Brought to the Big Screen

Click here to learn more!

Kodak Has Reason to Celebrate at the Academy Awards

Capturing the most iconic moments in our lifetime, whether through still photographs or film, Kodak is again well represented in the majority of films up for nomination at this year's Academy Awards. Every Best Picture winner in the history of the Academy Awards has been captured on Kodak Motion Picture Film.

Kodak has won 30 awards from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences – including nine Oscars® for technical excellence and service. Kodak salutes this year's nominees and is proud to be a part of such memorable films that are enjoyed by millions of households worldwide.

Kodak's Role in Select 2008 Oscar® Nominated Films

The Wrestler

Photograph by NikoTavernise/
Protozoa Pictures

The Betrayal

Photograph courtesy of
Ellen Kuras, ASC

The Dark Knight

Photo courtesy of Warner Bros.
Pictures.™ & © DC Comics

The Reader

Photograph by Melinda Sue
Gordon © 2008. The Weinstein Co

Changeling

Photograph by Tony Rivetti, Jr.

click pictures to view

Interview with Wally Pfister

Oscar® Nominee for Best Cinematography on "The Dark Knight"

The Choice of Every Best Picture Winner Since 1929

Click here to view

Follow Kodak at the Academy Awards

Jenny Cisney, Kodak's official blogger, will be live on the Red Carpet to capture every moment.

Click here to follow her experience.

Contact Information

Nancy Carr, Kodak

nancy.carr@kodak.com

Bettina Garibaldi, Ketchum

bettina.garibaldi@ketchum.com

Nine Oscar® Statuettes

Click here to view Kodak's achievements