Leading Analyst Firm Names CorasWorks 2009 Cool Vendor for Content Management CorasWorks Evaluated for Its Modular Application Development System on SharePoint

Reston, VA – April 2, 2009 -- CorasWorks Corporation, a leading provider of software that makes it easier to build applications on Microsoft SharePoint, today announced it has been named by Gartner, Inc. as a “Cool Vendor” for Content Management in 2009.

In its’ March 13, report, “Cool Vendors for Content Management, 2009,” written by analysts Toby Bell, Rita E. Knox, Regina Casonato, Karen M. Shegda and Mark Gilbert, Gartner names CorasWorks as one of four Cool Vendors in the Content Management space.

“We are pleased to be recognized by Gartner as one of their four Cool Vendors for 2009. We view this as further validation of our leadership in offering an innovative approach to designing, building and managing applications and business processes on SharePoint that tie into enterprise-wide content,” said William Rogers, Founder and Chief Workplace Architect at CorasWorks. “Leveraging our modular, integrated, point & click system, our customers are driving compelling ROI by greatly reducing application code development and life cycle costs and empowering their business groups to work more productively and rapidly innovate.”

In March, CorasWorks released version 10 of its Workplace Suite and version 1.3 of its Data Integration Toolset. These two products combine for a powerful, yet easy-to-use, feature set for designing, building, and managing applications and business processes without the costs and complexities of custom code and system maintenance. Driven by web-based wizards, these products enable application builders to create modular, reusable components that snap together to create applications and business processes. This simplicity, agility and flexibility allow business groups to rapidly innovate to meet their ever-changing needs.

About Gartner’s Cool Vendors Selection Process

Gartner’s listing does not constitute an exhaustive list of vendors in any given technology area, but rather is designed to highlight interesting, new and innovative vendors, products and services. Gartner disclaims all warranties, expressed or implied, with respect to this research, including any warranties of merchantability or fitness of a particular purpose.

Gartner defines a cool vendor as a company that offers technologies or solutions that are: Innovative, enable users to do things they couldn’t do before; Impactful, have, or will have, business impact (not just technology for the sake of technology); Intriguing, have caught Gartner’s interest or curiosity in approximately the past six months.
