"I feel that sexy is the combination of one's attributes... from a simple smile, to one's voice, or posture. I think sexy is more than a look, but rather the sum total of one's character. I think loyalty is sexy, honesty is sexy, pleasing one's partner is sexy... motherhood is sexy... cooked food is sexy... intelligence is sexy... independence is sexy... the black woman is sexy."

—CHRIS WEBBER, PROFESSIONAL BASKETBALL PLAYER, NBA

"Jackie, you're a beautiful woman and great example for women, everywhere! You do not let anything stop you from accomplishing what you want. This book will give me and all women an excellent foundation for regaining our self-esteem and love."
