So, what's the catch?

None – all we ask is that you pay the expenses: $3,950/day for Kayana, $2,950/day for Katania - seven-day, six-nights. These fees are low because we price based on standard guest load and basic cruise time. Further, we avoid the high cost of "positioning" the yachts because we are already in the heart of the islands - don't worry, there's great ferry service, and seaplanes that drop you right at our dock. Additionally, both yachts are based together which allows economies of scale with crew, suppliers, service providers and local spa facility. If you have more guests or want more cruise time, you just pay to cover extra crew, supplies, and fuel.

Why are we doing this?

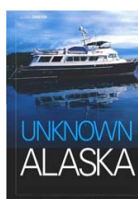

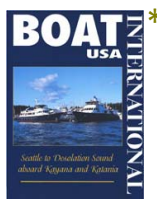

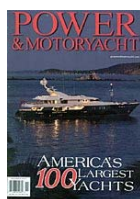

As owner/operator of an award winning charter business, we normally do a handful of charters at $75K to $105K per week, mostly with guests who arrive in their own jets. But, given the recession, this year we decided to try something really special to allow a broader range of guests to enjoy the luxury yachting experience - an "Expedition to the Extraordinary." The San Juans are a dream for yachters, and as the first luxury expedition yachting firm to charter there, we want you to enjoy one of the greatest island destinations in the world.
