

THE Responsibility PROJECT PRESENTS FILM SHORTS FOR FATHER'S DAY

Responsibility. What's your policy?

Follow

Look for The Responsibility Project on other sites across the web

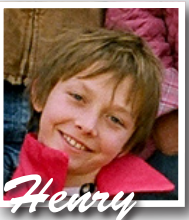

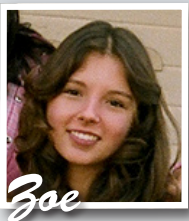

The Responsibility Project proudly presents, “Tony” and “Father’s Day” – two film shorts just in time for Father’s Day. Both films celebrate fathers and the relationship they have with their children. In “Tony,” actor Tate Donovan goes to great lengths to find his child’s lost teddy bear, while “Father’s Day” captures the emotions of a complicated father-daughter relationship. The Project’s online community, www.ResponsibilityProject.com, features:

- 12 independently produced short films click here
- More than 100 unique blog posts about responsibility click here
- Forum for sharing personal stories of responsibility click here

Meet the Marlowe Family

The latest advertising campaign from Liberty Mutual and The Responsibility Project poses the question of “what would you do?” and viewers are encouraged to share their opinions at www.ResponsibilityProject.com.

A fictional family faces situations that challenge their definition of personal responsibility and what it means to “do the right thing.”

The Films

A series of independently produced film shorts exploring the meaning of responsibility.

View the Film

From Grant Heslov and George Clooney’s Smoke House Pictures

TONY

Directed by Grant Heslov
Starring Tate Donovan
1 little boy.
1 lost teddy bear.
15 minutes to find it.

Here is a selection of the other films located at www.ResponsibilityProject.com:

Father’s Day

They say time heals all wounds. But what if all you have are weeks?

Mandy & Lester

Cookies will fall. A hero will rise.

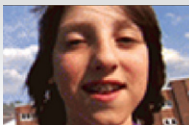

Lighthouse

A lighthouse keeper’s darkest hour turns out to be anything but.

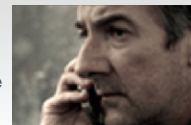

Table Guardians

An ordinary morning. An ordinary coffee shop. An extra-ordinary group of strangers.

Growing Up

It’s remarkable what children can learn from us. It’s even more remarkable what we can learn from them.

Transit

A man is just another passenger on a bus until he comes face to face with a thief. And a choice.

The Blog

Good Parenting or Bad Spying

Octuplets: Mother of All Issues

\$155,000 Puppy

Click here to view more than 100 other blog posts

Contact

Denise Day
W: 415-984-6230
C: 415-244-7309
denise.day@ketchum.com

Download Free

The Responsibility Project Parent/Teacher Kit