NYSE

Glacier Park, Inc. (Glacier Park), the largest concessionaire in Glacier National Park, operates four historic lodges and three motor inns in and around Glacier National Park in Montana and Waterton Lakes National Park in Alberta, Canada. In addition to lodging, Glacier Park's services include food and beverage operations, retail operations and tour and transportation services. Using a fleet of 33 authentic 1930s red touring buses, Glacier Park conducts interpretive park tours throughout Glacier and Waterton Lakes National Parks, including tours of the scenic Going-to-the-Sun Road.

Glacier Park's operations are seasonal, typically running from mid-May until the end of September. During the peak months of July and August, Glacier Park's lodges and motor inns have an occupancy level of approximately 98 percent.

THE GLACIER PARK EXPERIENCE

Visiting Glacier National Park in Montana and Waterton-Lakes National Park in Alberta is an experience that is about more than scenery. The parks encompass approximately 1.1 million acres of rugged wilderness and are best known for their spectacular scenery, hiking, glaciers and wildlife.

Glacier Parks' historic lodges are inspired by classic resorts in the Alps. Tours in vintage red buses explore the stunning scenery along the Going-to-the-Sun Road. Exciting activities like boat cruises, interpretive hikes, rafting, horseback riding, naturalist presentations and afternoon tea enhance guests' experiences of the park's awesome beauty. Glacier Park provides a level of service and a range of options to visitors that match the scenery's ability to astound.
