Legends Golf & Poker Academy

Featuring Doyle Brunson, Dewey Tomko, Mike “The Mad Genius” Caro & David Leadbetter

Poker’s most legendary icons, The David Leadbetter Golf Academy and High Stakes Entertainment have teamed up to produce a once-in-a-lifetime Poker & Golf learning experience.

This world-class event combines the biggest names in Poker & Golf at the World’s Leading Golf Academy for an unprecedented 4-day Poker & Golf learning and playing experience.

The event, which will take place at the OMNI ChampionsGate Golf Resort in Orlando, Florida - begins Tuesday, November 3, 2009 and features 3-days of Golf & Poker Instruction followed by a day of golf and poker playing opportunities.

Our featured poker instructors include the legendary Doyle Brunson, Dewey Tomko, Mike “The Mad Genius” Caro and Daniel Negreanu, with golf instruction being provided by the World’s Leading Golf Instructor, David Leadbetter, and his elite staff of certified instructors.

This unprecedented lineup will be further enhanced with a roster of participating pros that feature a diverse collection of poker and golf achievements. Among some of those scheduled to attend are professional golfers Rocco Mediate, Mike Hulbert, Brad Bryant, and Andy Bean.

About the Poker Instruction

After the afternoon golf sessions and a relaxing dinner, participants will settle in for evenings of poker instruction and playing scenarios.

Three evenings will be dedicated to intense poker instruction from Hall of Famers Doyle Brunson & Dewey Tomko, Daniel Negreanu along with the world's foremost authority of poker strategy, psychology and statistics, Mike "The Mad Genius" Caro. Caro, a professional player, pioneer poker theorist, and renowned author, will lead the instructional sessions with his in-depth poker playing strategies and captivating psychological and statistical analyses.

Besides teaching the poker school, our poker legends will also join students for poker playing strategy sessions and dinners. This will give students a chance to not only learn from the best, but to enjoy interaction from some of the games most colorful and revered personalities. Hall of Famers Doyle Brunson and Dewey Tomko are living legends in the poker world, having experienced the game on every level from back room roadhouse games to the world's largest and most prestigious poker events. Negreanu, known as "Kid Poker", is a 4-time WSOP bracelet winner and has collected over $11.4 million in tournament winnings. They'll share their experiences to not only entertain, but to also help students get an edge on their opponents at the tables.

On the fourth day, strategic playing sessions will be held so that students can put their lesson's learned to work in a real-world professional poker environment. Prizes will be awarded and will include exclusive experiences provided by our Legends as well as prizes provided by our Event Sponsors.

About the Golf Instruction

Participants will be treated like one of our visiting tour players and have access to our world-class game improvement staff and facilities for four days.

David Leadbetter and his elite staff (the same instructors responsible for so much pro tour success) will guide you through three days of golf instruction on our range and short game practice facilities. Comprehensive video analysis and club fitting will also be performed in order to maximize results and get you playing better than ever before. There will be opportunities for one-on-one instruction throughout the week and an overall low student to instructor ratio of 5:1 throughout the group sessions.

There will also be an impressive group of participating professional golfers who will also impart their knowledge and experiences to help make your experience a memorable one. Schedule to attend are Rocco Mediate, Andy Bean, Mike Hulbert, and Brad Bryant.

David, his instructors, and the participating pro golfers will also be available during lunches and dinners to provide their experiences and additional golf feedback during these breaks.
