TAKE A REINDEER HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

This year marks the 12th Annual Brad Nack 100% Reindeer Art Show. Nack is proud to announce his first national tour, "The 25 city 100% Brad Nack Reindeer Art Show Tour" stretching from California to the U.K.

At past shows collectors have arrived before the doors open. Followers have brought their own "red dots" so they can claim their piece without waiting for the gallery staff to assist them. Last year the entire show sold out in 7 minutes.

A SMALL IDEA THAT'S JUST QUIRKY ENOUGH TO GET SOME ATTENTION

In 1993, Nack created one Reindeer painting — it ended up in a winter solstice art show, where it attracted over 25 purchase inquires. The gallery owner persuaded Nack to consider painting 50 Reindeer for the next year.

"After 12 years, I have painted a lot of Reindeer, they always take a long time to paint, but have their own way of coming to life, which is usually a surprise and that's what's good about it." Says Nack.

ART TOUR

This year the 100% Reindeer Art Tour will start on Wednesday November 4th in Santa Barbara Ca. and touch down in over 25 locations throughout November and December 2009. Highlights include Portland, San Francisco, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, Miami, Boston, New York, New Haven, and London.
