Dresser & Associates Forms Alliance With Atlanta-Based Miramonte Partners

Sage Abra Business Partner, Dresser & Associates, Widens Service Offering By Joining Human Resources Business Network Consortium

Atlanta, GA—December 2, 2009—Dresser & Associates, the country's leading Sage Abra HRMS (Human Resource Management Solution) provider, today announced a new partnership with Miramonte Partners intended to broaden the firm's service offering to its business clients. Miramonte Partners is an Atlanta-based organization providing human resource and operations consulting services through a global network of companies sharing the vision of offering direction, guidance, and solutions to the marketplace in a timely, professional and confidential manner.

"As a human resource management solution provider, we understand that HR and payroll professionals need easy access to updated tools and information to help them do their jobs efficiently," said Mark Dresser, president of Dresser & Associates. "Miramonte Partners brings together industry-leading companies that offer relevant products and services such as benefits consulting, recruiting, employee relations, retirement programs, and finance management. Miramonte Partners makes it simpler for our clients to find the resources they are looking for, and the confidence that they are working with the best of the best."

The new alliance is one of many service offerings that Dresser & Associates makes available to its clients and interested professionals. Other innovative resources include free web-based training and seminars, informative white papers, a free HRIS selection tool, online demonstrations, and access to expert tools and advice.

"We are constantly striving to enhance the level and variety of services we offer our clients," added Dresser. "Our goal at Dresser & Associates is to serve as a primary resource for current HR and payroll information, and this partnership dovetails perfectly with that initiative."
