

Second Annual Dr. Alec Kessler Memorial High School Invitational Basketball Tournament

December 28-30, 2009

Gulf Breeze High School

Dr. Alec Kessler played in the NBA with the Miami Heat and was recognized as an outstanding student athlete at the University of Georgia.

After his basketball career, Dr. Kessler was an orthopaedic surgeon with Baptist Health Care and the Andrews Institute for Orthopaedics & Sports Medicine.

High school basketball teams from around the southeastern United States will participate in the second annual tournament to honor the legacy of Dr. Alec Kessler.
