RKN STUDIO WELCOMES YAHOO! SUPER STAR

RKN Studio of Stevenson Ranch is pleased to announce that it has added a new partner, Jason Price of Valencia.

Price comes to RKN Studio with 10 years of experience in business development. Formerly the Web & Interactive Media Specialist for The Signal, Price spent the previous seven years with Yahoo! Advertising and Business Solutions, assisting thousands of small and medium-sized businesses with search engine marketing, e-commerce and website optimization – services that Price now brings to the RKN Studio suite.

Known for his energy and passion, Price was awarded the 2004 Yahoo! Super Star, presented to 25 of 8,100 employees worldwide for embodying the corporate values of “Teamwork, Excellence, Innovation, Customer Fixation, Community, and Fun.”

“During my time at Yahoo, we realized the best results come from connecting businesses to users and their online communities,” he said. “Everything else was secondary. After seeing the work RKN Studio has done in this realm, I’m excited to join their team.”

A California Institute of the Arts graduate, Price also brings to RKN Studio years of leadership roles in the Santa Clarita community.

His positions have included founding director of the Brenda Mehling Cancer Fund in Valencia, past president of the Repertory East Playhouse in Newhall, and senior member of JCI Santa Clarita Valley – also known as the SCV Jaycees.

Last year, the California Jaycee Foundation and JCI California honored Price as one of ten Outstanding Young Californians, recognized for their contributions to the state among thirteen categories, such as economic innovation, philanthropic contribution or cultural achievement.

“Having built small businesses in this valley, I’ve realized that the incredible people here, their passion and ideas, and the fantastic sense of philanthropy all combine to create a wealth of opportunities,” Price said. “I’m proud to live and work here in Santa Clarita.”

“Jason brings to the table knowledge, experience, outside-the-box thinking and passion, and we couldn’t be happier,” said partners Ron and Kristy Nuttall. “We can’t wait to see what this partnership does for our clients.”
