OSKAR COLLECTION

sifas

The in-outdoor attitude is a new way to live and create living spaces. Sifas collections do not make a distinction between outdoor patio furniture and indoor living furniture. Our contemporary furniture design goes beyond aesthetics, reaching efficiency of comfort, durability and functionality in both interior and exterior applications.

interior garden design

Roda brings its furniture inside by translating the atmosphere and positivity of outdoor living into interior design. The pieces are vibrant, not just in the meticulously wrought details or selection of finishes, but in the way they palpably embody the pleasurable and primordial experience of outdoor living.
