23RD MARCH 2010

A NEW HOME FOR PREGNANCY, BIRTH AND BEYOND

Pregnancy, Birth and Beyond has launched a new website. Private midwifery services and childbirth education are now available via one easy-to-use information service.

The new website uses a clean and easy navigational system to provide users with easy access to contact details of health care professionals, parental forums and pregnancy products.

Pregnancy, Birth and Beyond has been offering support to parents for over 18 years. It aims to support and educate new and expectant parents, and to enhance awareness about the option of natural birth.

Jane Palmer, founder and director of the organisation, sees this website as "a great communication medium between maternity care professionals and parents, as well as offering parent to parent support. It opens wider horizons and opinions about pregnancy and birthing, increasing awareness and knowledge."

"Often parents do not consider the alternatives for birth and pregnancy. With my many years of experience as a midwife and childbirth educator, I recognise the need of parents to have access to quality and balanced information to make informed decisions. Through Pregnancy, Birth and Beyond we support informed choice and women-friendly maternity care"

For more information on Pregnancy, Birth and Beyond please visit our new website at www.pregnancy.com.au or contact Jane directly.
