MAXID CORP ANNOUNCES WEBINAR SERIES
FOCUSED ON IDENTITY MANAGEMENT AND SECURITY

Webinars cover topics of TWIC Compliance, Biometrics, Identity Dominance

Pleasanton, California and Fremont, California -- April 20, 2010 -- MaxID, a leading provider of identity solutions today announced it would be hosting a series of free Webinars focused on the topic of Identity Management and Security starting on April 21, 2010.

4/21/2010

TWIC Compliance 101 – This Webinar provides an overview of HSPD12, Maritime Security Act, TWIC program creation, the role of the Department of Homeland Security, the United States Coast Guard and Lockheed Martin. The webinar covers the used of the TWIC and PIV cards, compliance requirements, various MARSEC security levels and the implications to the US ports and maritime industry. This Webinar is presented jointly by MaxID Corp and the International Biometric Industry Association.

4/28/2010

TWIC Compliance and the CoreStreet PIVMAN Solution – This webinar focuses on the use of the CoreStreet PIVMAN software and how it is being used today for TWIC-card reading and compliance with mandated requirements. Imore detailed view of TWIC reading and enforcement using iDL500 and PIVMAN. This Webinar is sponsored by CoreStreet Software, A subsidiary of ActivIdentity.

4/29/2010

TWIC Compliance and the CodeBench PIVCHECK Solution – This webinar covers the use of the Codebench PIVCHECK software and how it is being used today for TWIC-Card reading and compliance with the mandated requirements. This Webinar is sponsored by Codebench Software.

5/12/2010

Biometrics 101 – This is a 1-hour webinar that serves as a first introduction to the area of biometrics. The webinar covers the basics behind fingerprinting, IRIS recognition, and other emerging biometric techniques such as facial recognition. The Webinar shows, for instance, how fingerprints are differentiated and searched, historic perspective.   This webinar is jointly sponsored by MaxID Corp and Animetrics Inc.

5/19/2010

TWIC Compliance and the MaxID MaxIDentity Suite – This webinar focuses in on the use of the MaxIDentity Suite and how it can be used to read TWIC/PIV/CAC/FRAC cards as well as driver's licenses, passports, ePassports and other identity credentials.   This Webinar is sponsored by MaxID Corp.

5/26/2010

Identity Dominance: An Introduction – The US Military, having achieved dominance of the battlefield and air, next seeks to dominate the area of Identity in irregular warfare. This Webinar introduces the tops and provides a model for how the use of biometrics, forensics and technical exploitation come into play in this newly emerging area. The program provides a perspective on te historic development of the Identity Dominance area, and current thought leadership in the area. This Webinar is sponsored by MaxID Corp.

6/2/2010

Advanced Biometrics – This Webinar follows up on the Biometrics 101 Webinar and dives into further details about biometrics and their applications today in both the identity and security markets. It is strongly recommended that participants first attend/view the Biometrics 101 webinar before participating in this webinar. This webinar is sponsored by MaxID Corp.

6/9/2010

Real Life Biometrics – This webinar walks through detailed case study of applied identity and biometrics – the interdiction program of HIV (High Interest Vessels) by the United States Coast Guard. The program is focused around validating ship crew members with biometric data from Department of State and US Visit program against the crew manifest to verify the validity of all crew members.

Co-Sponsor of the Webinar Series

MaxID Corp is joined by a number of co-Sponsors for this Webinar Series including CoreStreet Software, a subsidiary of ActivIdentity, CodeBench Software, Animetrics and the International Biometric Industry Association.

About MaxID Corporation

MaxID Corp is a leading provider of identity and security solutions. It designs, manufactures and sells identity management solutions for a mobile environment. The company is headquartered in Pleasanton, California, and has offices in Virginia Beach, Virginia, the United Kingdom and South Africa.

MaxID Corp maintains a global research and development team that has more than 20 years experience introducing new technologies. The company's most advanced biometric handheld devices are manufactured in the United States and are distributed worldwide. More than 25,000 identity devices are being deployed worldwide by customers such as the US Department of Defense, the US Department of Homeland Security, border and law enforcement agencies, and power generation and maritime facilities. For more information about MaxID Corp, please refer to the website http://www.maxidcorp.com.