

Korean Creation 2010

Lilycomes
Fall and Winter
by Jeong Mi Young

April 24, 2010
Harvard Eleganza

Lilycomes, by Jeong Mi Young

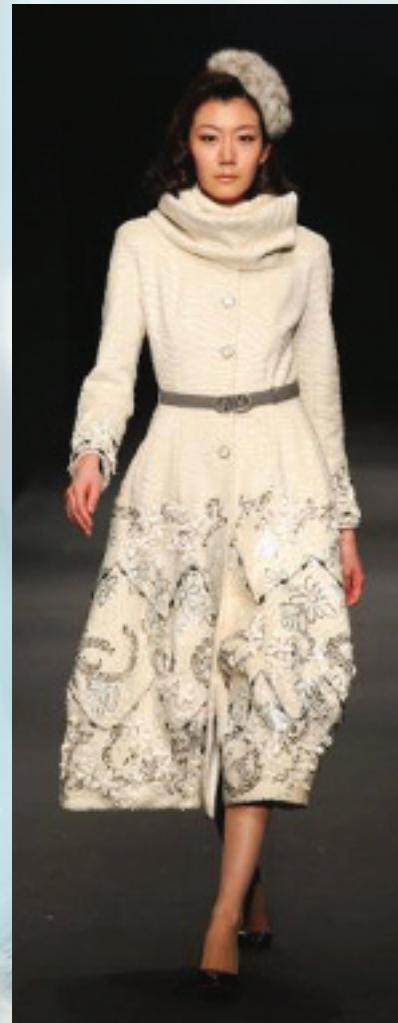

In 2005 Jeone Mi Young launched her collection of natural silk, organza and cotton contemporary and evening dresses in splashes of vibrant color. Her new collection features long, airy flowing dresses in exotic patterns with criss-cross halter and square tank tops. She makes a contrasting bold statement in black and white with fluffy meringue style gowns with confectionary details. Ruffles, feathers and a spectrum of necklines create an exquisite runway rainbow. The designs are not subtle, but startle and excites like great art.

Designer Mi Young is an innovator, applying the French technique of moulage. Her extensive educational background includes Esmode Paris, Ecole Nationale Suprieure des Beaus, Ecole de la Chambre Syndicale de la Couture Parisienne, as well as an advanced program in fashion business for CEOs at Seoul National University. "Her unique combination of old world elegance and Asian influence offers rare opportunity to find a custom crafted couture dress," says Zivkovich.

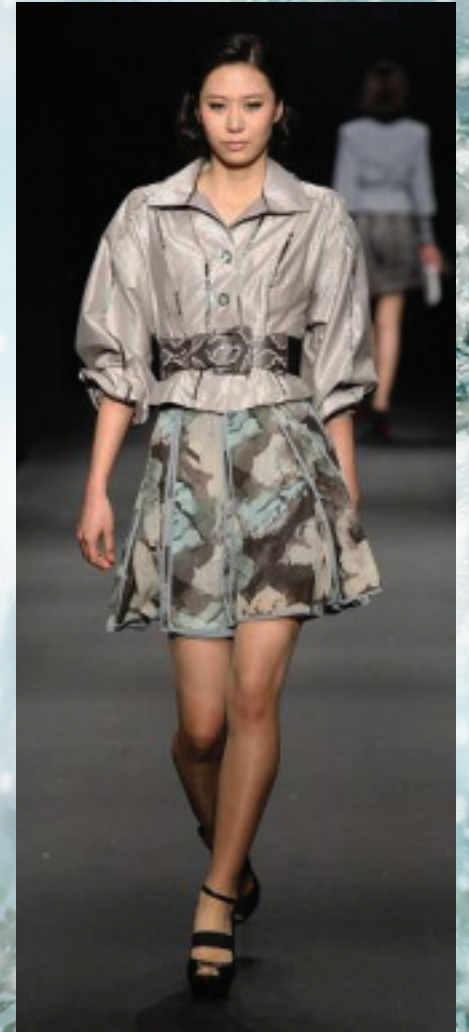

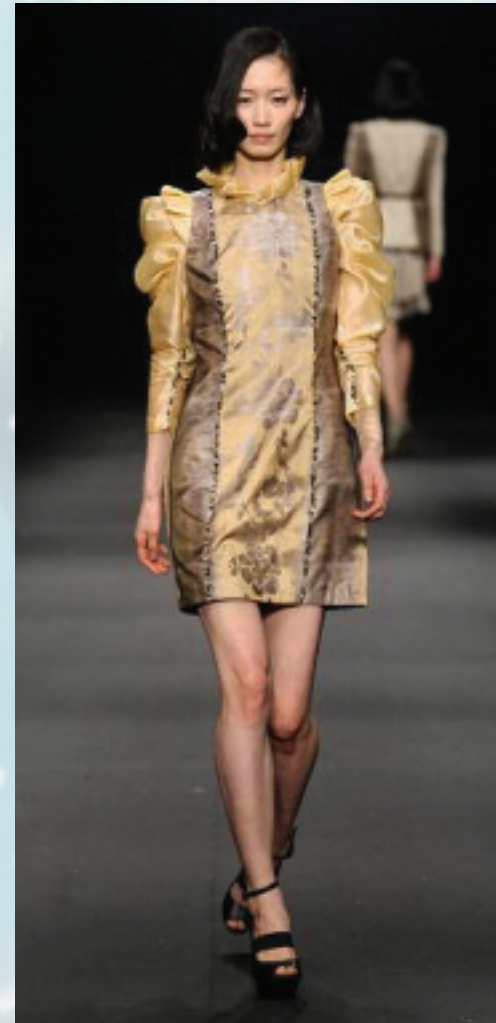

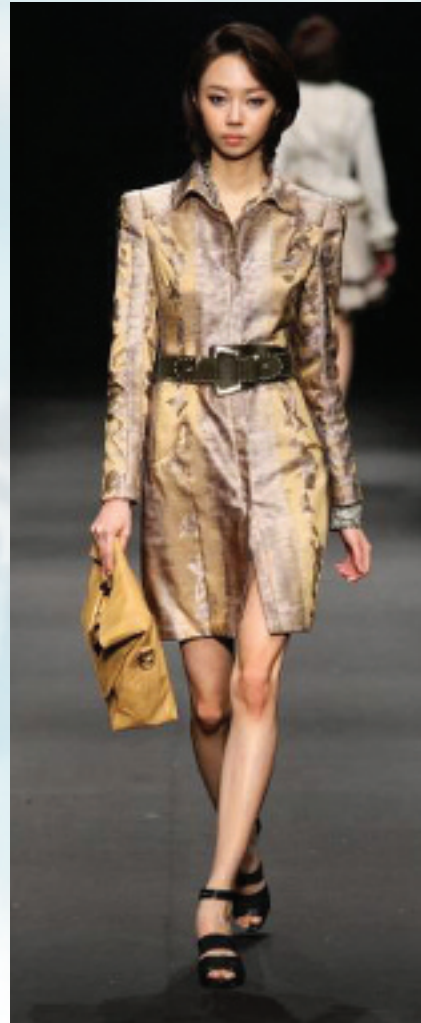

On April 24, 2010, Lilycomes' collection will be shown at Harvard Eleganza in Boston at Lavietes Pavilion. The Eleganza is an annual event celebrating diversity and the arts, and is one of the most anticipated events of the year on campus, attracting over 1,700 students from all ethnicities and backgrounds at Harvard and other colleges in the Boston area.

Lilycomes Fall and Winter Looks

Lilycomes Fall and Winter Looks

Lilycomes Fall and Winter Looks

