Concurrency Helps Microsoft Launch SharePoint 2010 at Milwaukee Event Concurrency's experts provide insight and Q&A

Brookfield, Wis., April 13th, 2010 – Microsoft Gold Certified Partner and SharePoint experts, Concurrency, continue to provide valuable insight into the software giant's technologies at the Microsoft 2010 Launch Event, at the Hilton Milwaukee City Center. On April 20, attendees will receive access to technology experts and a morning of training on SharePoint 2010, Office Professional 2010, Project 2010, SQL Server 2008 R2, and Visual Studio 2010.

Included at the event is the Concurrency booth where IT professionals can get individual face time with experienced Microsoft Certified Engineers and enterprise content management (ECM) consultants to learn how Office 2010 and SharePoint 2010 work together as an integrated platform. Demonstrations and detailed information on tools and resources will provide insight as attendees evaluate how to improve their infrastructure, increase business productivity and increase IT control - all while reducing risk and decreasing cost.
