

The Ten Principles of 21st Century Leadership

Definition: 21st century leaders inspire others to alter their thoughts and actions, in alignment with an empowering vision.

1. Everyone Can Lead, Because Everyone Can Serve.
2. The Most Valuable Resource of Any Enterprise is its People.
3. We Are in Transition from a Transaction-Based World to a Relationship-Based World.
4. Leadership is a Relationship Between Empowered, Consenting Adults.
5. Leadership is a Dynamic Relationship.
6. There is No Universal Leadership Style.
7. Leadership Roles are Converging.
8. A Leader's Unique Task is to Imagine and Advance a Vision.
9. Love is the Highest Level of Leadership Relationship.
10. Character is a Competitive Advantage.

Source: Serve to Lead ® by James Strock

Contact: Michele Sobota * Michele@mediaconnexions.com * 269.873.3373