IRVINE MARRIOTT HOTEL WELCOMES HOOTENANNY FESTIVAL ATTENDEES WITH WEEKEND SAVINGS

This Irvine hotel welcomes visitors to the 2010 Hootenanny Festival with the Stay and Spend package – a great rate that includes a $50 credit to be applied towards on-site dining, internet access or parking.

May 6, 2010 – Irvine, CA – On July 3rd the Irvine Marriott Hotel will welcome hot rod and music enthusiasts alike as they attend the annual Hootenanny Festival in Oak Canyon Ranch. Festival attendees can relax and unwind at the Irvine Marriott Hotel by booking the Stay & Spend package which, in addition to a great price, will include a $50 hotel credit that can be applied towards multiple dining options, high speed internet or on-site parking. This package is available online at <http://www.marriott.com/hotels/hotel-deals/laxir-irvine-marriott/?offerInfo=450206>.

The annual Hootenanny Festival is where Rock and Blues come together in an all-day battle of the bands. This outdoor event boasts two stages with headliners such as Nick 13, Old 97's and Shooter Jennings in addition to many other artists. Car admirers can bask in the 300-plus muscle cars and hot rods proudly on display by their owners. There will also be hundreds of vendors offering unique merchandise and tempting festival food, along with plenty of beer. For additional information on the Hootenanny Festival visit www.thehootenanny.com.

The Stay & Spend package at the Irvine Marriott Hotel is a great way for Hootenanny Festival attendees to experience all that Orange County has to offer while indulging in an upscale hotel experience. Irvine Marriott Hotel guests who book the Stay and Spend package can use their $50 credit to experience dining at the newly renovated Elements 102 restaurant, sample fresh seafood at the on-site Sushi Bar, or enjoy a quiet meal from room service. The voucher can also be applied towards parking costs or high speed internet access. Hotel packages are subject to availability and guests are encouraged to inquire at the time of booking.
