

Author Biographical Information

Name: Daniel Britton

Age: 42

Education:

- Downend School, Bristol
- UWE Bristol, BEd Business Education
- CIOM, Diploma in Management
- University of Leicester, MBA

Career:

- Natwest Bank – Investment Advisor
- Teacher, Ryde High School, Isle of Wight
- Head of Business Education, Twynham School, Christchurch, Dorset
- Business Manager, Writhlington School, Bath
- Assistant Headteacher, Avonbourne School, Bournemouth
- Regional Co-ordinator, School's Enterprise Education Network
- Owner, Live2Learn Education Consultancy

Awards:

- Commendation National Teaching Awards – 2006 Enterprise Education
- Chamber of Commerce – 2006 Business Education Partnerships

Published Work:

- The Financial Fairy Tales – Dreams Can Come True, Authorhouse February 2010, ISBN: 978-1449070076

The Financial Fairytales have been written to improve the life chances of children worldwide by encouraging the development of financial and enterprise awareness, through fun and engaging stories.

About Live2Learn

We are an independent education consultancy whose mission is to empower children, young people and adults through personal development, financial education and enterprise awareness.

The Financial Fairy Tales – books and resources aimed at young readers between 5 - 9

The Personal Best Programme – one day workshop for teenagers 15 -19 to increase self esteem, develop goals orientation and foster a can-do attitude to life.

