Dresser & Associates Announces Upcoming Employer Survival Guide Seminar in Florida

Sage Abra partner, Dresser & Associates, to hold free conference on topics of importance to employers on June 17, 2010 in St. Petersburg, FL

St. Petersburg, FL—June 2, 2010—Dresser & Associates, the country's top Sage Abra HRMS (Human Resource Management System) solution provider, is hosting a free Employer Survival Guide for 2010 and Beyond seminar on June 17, 2010 in St. Petersburg, Florida. The seminar will provide attendees with current, accurate, and pertinent information on topics of interest to employers, including healthcare reform and changing overtime rules.

The seminar, co-sponsored by Dresser & Associates, Stahl & Associates Insurance, and Constangy, Brooks, & Smith, LLP will take place at The Hilton at Carillon Hotel from 8:30 until noon. Registration and a continental breakfast begin at 8:00 AM.

"We've assembled a knowledgeable team of industry experts to speak at this event," said Mark Dresser, president of Dresser & Associates. "Especially during these volatile times, it's vital for employers to remain on top of changing regulations and understand how they can ensure compliance and protect their organizations from lawsuits."

Among the experts speaking at the seminar are Phillip Russell, Esq. of Constangy, Brooks & Smith, LLP, who will speak on Avoiding Overtime Lawsuits and Staying Union-Free in a Pro-Union World. David Pearson, also of Constangy, Brooks & Smith, LLP, will discuss Health Care Reform: 2010 and Beyond.

Seating is limited for this free event, so responses are encouraged before June 11, 2010. For additional information or to register, contact Sara Campbell, Dresser & Associates at 866-885-7212 or visit <http://www.dresserassociates.com/sage-abra-training/training-sessions.asp>
