More than 250 Chester Community Charter School (CCCS) parents recently attended the sixth annual Parent Appreciation Dinner, which celebrates parents for their hard work and dedication to their children's educational success. Parents were treated to a catered dinner and given the opportunity to win prizes, such as DVD players, portable DVD players, gift cards, bicycles, a digital camera, an iPod, a 19" flat screen high-definition television and the grand prize, a trip to Disney World, in Orlando, Florida. Included in this photo of the winning parents are Honorable Judge Spencer Seaton (far right), chairman of the school's board and, Steven E. Lee (third from right), the school's chief executive officer.
