Corporate Citizenship

Protecting Our Earth

Vodien is committed to caring for the environment in every way possible, and we do so by maximizing IT productivity and saving energy.

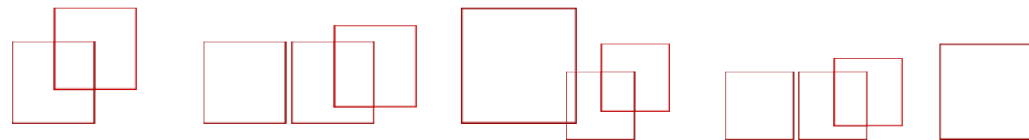

In order to provide our web hosting customers with lower overall power consumption and carbon dioxide emissions in the data center, we invest in greener Dell servers that achieve industry-leading performance per watt, and are 20% more energy efficient than the average server.

These servers also qualify for the new ENERGY STAR® specifications sponsored by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Defense. On top of that, our company policies focus on reducing, reusing, and recycling as much as we can.

VOTE EARTH!

- ✘ We have all bank statements delivered electronically
- ✘ We implemented an electronic, paperless invoicing system
- ✘ We ensure that all waste that can be recycled is
- ✘ We recycle packing material received from incoming shipments
- ✘ We use recycled paper for our administration
