MARRIOTT SAN DIEGO LA JOLLA INVITES GUESTS TO ENJOY FAMILY-FRIENDLY MUSIC AT LA JOLLA CONCERTS BY THE SEA

Free concert series returns to La Jolla, California, and guests at San Diego Marriott La Jolla are invited to join the fun.

San Diego, CA – (06/11/10) – Beginning July 11, the La Jolla Concerts by the Sea brings a wide variety of music to Scripps Park, which overlooks La Jolla Cove. The free concert series features bands playing rock-n-roll, big band, jazz and other musical styles. The music starts at 2 p.m. and lasts until 4 p.m. every Sunday until September 5th. Located near Scripps Park, the Marriott San Diego La Jolla provides superb accommodations only a few minutes from the concert grounds. To book a room online, guests should visit www.marriott.com/SANLJ

The concert series, which started in 1984, aims to bring family friendly music to the sunny San Diego area. This year’s musical performers include Rockola, Blue Breeze Band, Laura Roppé and the Bill Magee Blues Band, among other bands. The La Jolla Concerts by the Sea invites Ron Jones, hailed as the voice of San Diego, to emcee the event. Aside from musical performances, local vendors provide food and drinks to quench attendees’ appetites, and raffle tickets will be sold for a chance to win prizes, such as gift cards to local restaurants. Proceeds from raffle tickets and food sales will help sponsor future concerts.

The La Jolla Concerts by the Sea presents the perfect opportunity for families to travel affordably, enjoy the pleasant San Diego weather and experience local music. To see a full schedule of events, information on all the bands and more information about the festival itself, guests should visit www.ljconcertsbythesea.org/
