VISITORS TO MONTEREY MARRIOTT GO UNDER THE SEA WITH MONTEREY AQUARIUM PACKAGE

Special Monterey Marriott hotel package provides deluxe accommodations for two, two tickets to nationally-renowned Monterey Bay Aquarium, and breakfast at 3-Flags cafe.

Monterey, CA – (07/01/10) – Space may be the final frontier, but the Monterey Bay Aquarium makes a case that the most alien creatures live under the Earth’s own oceans. Visitors can explore the depths at one of the nation’s top 10 aquariums, but for those travelers wishing to explore land and sea, the Marriott Monterey hotel offers a package that enables guests to discover beautiful Monterey, California along with this world-famous aquarium. The Marriott Hotel Aquarium Package, which is available now until December 31, 2010, offers deluxe accommodations for two at the hotel, breakfast at the 3-Flags café, and two tickets to the Monterey Bay Aquarium.

From hot-pink flamingos to giant octopuses, the Monterey Aquarium showcases some of the most interesting species living in the Monterey Bay area and around the globe. Majestic seahorses, the giant kelp forest and playful penguins swim around in the Aquarium’s large exhibits. Guests can visit these amazing creatures’ homes while they stay at the Monterey Marriott hotel. The hotel is conveniently located just over a mile from the Monterey Bay Aquarium, making the Monterey Marriott the perfect place to stay for underwater enthusiasts and adventurers. Rooms are limited, so guests should book this special hotel offer quickly.

Furthermore, if visitors to the Monterey area plan their trips at the right time, they can also take part in the BLUE Ocean Film Festival, which the Monterey Bay Aquarium sponsors this year. From August 26-29, visitors can watch dazzling films depicting underwater habitats and wildlife. The BLUE Ocean Film Festival offers day passes, which include screenings of the films, access to the filmmaker Q&A’s and a seat at the conservation seminars. Single day passes start at $45 and can be booked online at <http://www.blueoceanfilmfestival.org/publicfestivalpasses.html>
