Instructors Love Our Online Education Courses!

Look:

It's no wonder Instructors love teaching Internet Field Days to HunterExam students. Instructors know that any student completing one of our state approved online courses has been exposed to all hunter education topics with more than 400 original illustrations and graphics in EVERY exam question.

After all, visual learners make up 33% of the general population and we cater to this learning style in all areas of the online course.

To find out more about teaching Internet Field Days in your area, contact your regional or state coordinator.
