2010 Fundraiser Gameplan

If you're ready to try the Hacker's Guide for your upcoming fundraising drive, then you'll see how easy it is to raise the money you need. A typical golf team has 10-20 athletes on it. A football team perhaps 80. If you've got varsity and junior varsity or boys and girls teams, those numbers could be much larger. Regardless, if your team members just reach twenty customers each, there is a lot of money to be had for the team. We've outlined a few scenarios showing your profits, but your situation may be different:

Scenario #3 - TC Guide only

40 players (25 men' 15 women) 800 books sold (20 books/player sold)

Retail Price: $14.95

Wholesale Price: $7.50 (50% off)

Net Profit: $7.50

Income: $6,000 to school

Scenario #1 - MN Guide only

30 players (20 men, 10 women) 300 books sold (10 books/player sold)

Retail Price: $19.95

Wholesale Price: $10.00 (50% off)

Net Profit: $10.00

Income: $3,000 to school

Scenario #2 - MN Guide only

60 players (40 men, 20 women) 1200 books sold (20 books/player sold)

Retail Price: $19.95

Wholesale Price: $10.00 (50% off)

Net Profit: $10.00

Income: $12,000 to school

Scenario #4 - Both Guides
