United Site Services Announces New COO Mark Zimmerman

Westborough, MA – August 4, 2010 - United Site Services (“USS”) announced today the appointment of Safety-Kleen Systems veteran Mark Zimmerman to the newly created position of Chief Operating Officer. In this new role Mr. Zimmerman will be responsible for the company’s operational infrastructure, service delivery, compliance and quality.

“Mark brings tremendous relevant experience and a history of impressive accomplishments to USS,” said Ron Carapezzi, CEO of USS. “Our company will benefit from the skills and knowledge he has built through his proven track record of driving efficiency and growth in the services industry.”

Prior to joining USS, Zimmerman was Senior Vice President and General Manager of Safety-Kleen Systems, a billion-dollar privately held provider of industrial waste management services. In this role he was responsible for the general management of all division activities related to sales, service, P&L and strategic planning for 45 branch locations, two recycling centers and nine terminals with over 900 employees. He integrated multiple major acquisitions, developed a strategy for consolidating oil collection terminals and co-chaired a team that developed and rolled out nationally a new sales and service concept improving quality of service delivery to Safety-Kleen’s customers.

In addition to the industrial segment of Safety-Kleen Mr. Zimmerman worked extensively with the special events market. His experience includes management of SK Motorsports providing services to NASCAR venues and teams as well oversight of Safety-Kleen’s cruise ship market.

Carapezzi added “United Site Services is focused on providing the highest quality and greatest customer satisfaction in the site services industry. Mark Zimmerman has displayed a passion for this throughout his career and we are thrilled to have him join our team.”
