What every CIO and IT Manager should be asking themselves about their Service Desk:

- Is my cost per ticket rising?
- How can I reduce the cost of my service desk?
- How can I increase customer satisfaction with my service desk?
- Is my support model ready to scale with the growth of my business?
- How much time do I spend dealing with service desk related issues?
- Is my service desk achieving a 1st touch resolution of 70% or higher?

Why Boise?

- The Milken Institute ranks Idaho among the 10 Western states with the lowest overall costs of doing business — nearly a third lower than in California.
- The Boise Valley has a workforce of more than 280,000 and is rife with excellent talent from nearby technical schools and colleges, including Boise State University.
