Extended Stay Guests Find Marriott Executive Apartments Ideal Choice

A combination of service and comfort in Sao Paulo's Executive Apartments makes business travelers feel at home while on trips.

Extended stay visitors to the Sao Paulo hotel have discovered that the Marriott executive apartments are an excellent option. This Sao Paulo Brazil Hotel combines comfort, attractive rates and Marriott hotel service. The hotel has become a favorite among the growing number of expatriates living in Brazil. The economy in the country, which resumed its growth despite the world financial crisis, has attracted more executives from the largest American and European corporations. The Marriott Executive Apartments took advantage of this opportunity and became the first essentially expatriate-oriented hotel in Sao Paulo, the largest city and the center of business in Brazil. Nearly 50 expatriate executives enjoyed the service provided by the hotel in 2009.

Besides the great extended stay rooms, this Brazil hotel offers a great location to Sao Paulo travelers. The hotel is in close proximity to some of Sao Paulo's finest shopping malls and restaurants, as well as many businesses and beautiful churches. In addition, this Sao Paulo suite hotel is located in upscale Vila Nova Conceicao, a very safe and calm area, providing guests an opportunity to enjoy nature and feel isolated from the bustle of Sao Paulo. Guests at the hotel can walk to Ibirapuera Park – the main urban park in the city, which features wide spaces perfect for a jog. For those more business-minded, the park also houses a large convention center, which frequently hosts events in Sao Paulo. The hotel's convenient location—45 minutes from Sao Paulo-Guarulhos International Airport and 10 minutes from Congonhas domestic airport—makes Sao Paulo travel easy for both foreign and domestic visitors.

While the hotel's location may entice guests to the hotel, the easy application process will keep them coming back. When renting an extended stay apartment at the Marriott Hotel Sao Paulo, guests need not worry about a difficult process or completing an extensive agreement: customers have the option of staying as long as they wish. Furthermore, the hotel's rates decrease the longer the stay. With a strong focus on executives and expatriates who travel for long periods of time, the Executive Apartments Sao Paulo hotel has partnered with relocation companies to help guests acclimate to their new location.
