GREAT AMERICA CALIFORNIA THEME PARK AND SANTA CLARA MARRIOTT HOTEL OFFER THRILLS AND FUN WITH SPECIAL DEAL

For a limited time, special Marriott Santa Clara Hotel deal offers two tickets to California's Great America Theme Park, accommodations and complimentary self-parking.

Santa Clara, CA - (08/24/10) - With children everywhere starting school, most theme parks close down for the season. However, California's Great America Theme Park and the Marriott Santa Clara Hotel know better: adults love theme parks too. The Marriott hotel has created the Great America Theme Park Package to bring out the kid in everyone. The hotel deal includes accommodations, complimentary self-parking at the hotel and two single-day passes to the Great America California Theme Park, which is adjacent to the hotel. The package is available now until November 2, 2010. For more information about this special offer, visit <http://www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/sjcga-santa-clara-marriott/>

California's Great America Theme Park makes even the busiest adult feel young again. For thrill seekers, the amusement park offers seven roller coasters for a screaming good time. Of course, not everyone enjoys the white-knuckle excitement of thrill rides. The Great America Park has a variety of live shows ranging from stunt demonstrations to musical performances. For parents who decide to bring their kids, the theme park has recently opened Planet Snoopy, a kid-oriented area featuring the beloved Peanuts characters. Since the major theme park season has passed, guests can enjoy all of these rides while avoiding the long lines.

With Santa Clara Marriott Hotel's special deal, feeling like a kid again has never been more affordable. Guests have the option of selecting accommodations with either a king sized bed or two doubles. The theme park is located adjacent to the Marriott Santa Clara hotel, making travel to and from the park easy. The special hotel deal is valid any Friday-Sunday until November 2, as the park is only open Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through October 31.
