MANHATTAN BEACH MARRIOTT HOTEL COMMEMORATES MUMMIES OF THE WORLD DEBUT WITH SPECIAL DEAL

The special museum collection brings countless number of artifacts and ancient mummies to the California Science Center. To celebrate the exhibit's debut, Manhattan Beach Marriott Hotel offers special deal.

Manhattan Beach, California - (08/26/10) - The California Science Center in Los Angeles has assembled the largest traveling exhibit of mummies and mummy-related artifacts in the world. The Manhattan Beach Marriott Hotel wants its guests to be among the first to experience this exciting new show. To celebrate the debut of the Mummies of the World Exhibit, the Marriott Hotel at Manhattan Beach has created a special package which includes deluxe accommodations, 50% off parking, a $4 discount off adult museum tickets and late check out. This special hotel deal is available now until November 14, 2010 and can be reserved online at <http://www.marriott.com/LAXMN>

The Mummies of the World exhibit features 40 mummies and a countless number of artifacts from Asia, Oceania, South America, Europe and of course, Egypt. While the popular perception of mummies has focused on the likes of King Tut and Hollywood movies, the Mummies of the World exhibit strives to educate the public further about these ancient relics as well as provide insight into the mummification process. Using interactive exhibits and multi-media presentations, the California Science Center hopes to recreate how ancient people once lived and shed light into these ancient societies.

The Marriott Manhattan Beach Hotel created the special Mummies of the World hotel deal to encourage guests to see this one-of-a-kind show. This exceptional offer is available seven days a week until November 14, 2010. Guests who reserve the Mummies of the World package will benefit from Manhattan Beach Marriott's deluxe accommodations - featuring Internet access and supremely comfortable beds. With attractive discounted tickets and affordable parking, this Manhattan Beach hotel deal is the best way to experience the Mummies of the World while keeping wallets full.
