MARRIOTT HOTELS POST UNDER PAR PRICES DURING CVS/PHARMACY LPGA CHALLENGE TOURNAMENT

Week-long tournament at Blackhawk Country Club brings out LPGA Tour's best competitors and two area Marriott Hotels' best prices.

San Ramon, CA – (09/02/10) – From October 11 to 17, the Blackhawk Country Club near San Ramon, California, will host the CVS/pharmacy LPGA Challenge Tournament, which features some of the best female golfers in the world. The country club has groomed the greens and prepped the rough for the highest level of competition. Two Marriott Hotels have also begun to prepare for the tournament and are welcoming attendees with a special rate for the LPGA Challenge. Rooms at the nearby San Ramon Marriott Hotel start at $129 per night, while the Pleasanton Marriott Hotel offer accommodations starting at $111 per night.

The Blackhawk Country Club, home of the CVS/pharmacy LPGA Challenge for the last five years, is an idyllic venue for great golf and sightseeing. Mount Diablo surrounds the 6,212-yard, par-72 course and two beautiful club houses. Nature lovers will appreciate the wide-open areas, beautiful foothills and immaculately manicured landscape. Attendees can also expect a fun environment as thousands of fellow golf enthusiasts flock to the greens and watch their favorite LPGA pros compete against one another. Guests interested in the event should purchase their tickets now. As an added bonus, children under the age of 17 do not require a ticket when accompanied by an adult—perfect for introducing youths to the sport.

Both Marriott Hotels put guests within minutes of this LPGA tournament. The San Ramon Marriott Hotel is located six miles away, and the Pleasanton Marriott Hotel is only 12 miles from the greens. Offering special rates and a great location, these two Marriott hotels are sure to help guests get into the swing of things.
