DESCRIPTION: "The Spirited Baker" is a celebration of liqueur... as a baking ingredient.

Combining liqueurs with more traditional baking ingredients can yield spectacular results. Southern Comfort, peaches, and pecans create an amazing cheesecake. Rum, mangoes, and fresh mint combine to make a wild Mango Mojito Upside Down Cake. Try Candy Apple Flan, Jalapeno Beer Peanut Brittle, Lynchburg Lemonade Cupcakes, Pina Colada Rum Cake, Strawberry Daiquiri Chiffon Pie, and so much more.

To further add to your creative possibilities, the first chapter teaches how to infuse spirits to make both basic and cream liqueurs, as well as home made flavor extracts! This book contains over 160 easy to make recipes, with variation suggestions to help create hundreds more!

AUTHOR'S BIO: Marie Porter is an award winning cake artist based in Minnesota's Twin Cities. Known as much for her delicious and diverse flavor menu as for her sugar artistry, Marie's work has graced magazines and blogs around the world. As a trained Mixologist, Marie has combined her bartending knowledge with her aptitudes for baking and experimentation, culminating in a spirited cookbook for beginner and experienced home cooks alike.

DISTRIBUTION: The Spirited Baker is available directly from the publisher and from select vendors. Dealer inquiries welcome.

Hi-res images of the cover and select recipes are available, as are pictures and biography of Marie Porter. Please make requests by contacting Celebration Generation.
