

OUTSPOKEN NURSE CREATES TV SHOWS FOR PUBLIC

Traditional Medical, Alternative Therapy, Elective Options for Health, Wellness, Safety, Nutrition

Karon Gibson, RN offers a wealth of information provided by Professionals, Experts and Consumers on various aspects of Health Care. Doctors, Nurses, Reflexologists, Hypnotists, Beauticians, and Innovators of Products appear on her talk show to spotlight unknown and “Outspoken” facts.

Her mission to implement changes in lives is supplemented by entertainment and education for seniors, parents and families. The TV show is : OUTSPOKEN WITH KARON.

Karon began her career as a Registered Nurse in the Emergency Department of an inner city hospital then went on to become the Charge Nurse of a Community Hospital Psychiatric Unit. She met a colleague who was injured and required assistance unobtainable to the middle class through the social work department. She assisted the other Nurse with surgical sterile dressings at home and found a niche to fill a gap in health care by providing home care visits and creating an Independent Nursing Corporation Office for people to access when they could not see their Doctor. Services included blood draws, patient education, psychiatric nurse consults, occupational health care and even First Aid to an amusement park, and major motion pictures such as Dr. Detroit and Risky business. The Nurses embarked on an adventure in business and Nursing. They wrote down their stories and sold the story to a major publisher in New York on the basis of a phone call Karon made to the Chief Editor and an outline and chapter sent to him. The book, Nurses On Our Own, is still in print and was featured in People Magazine and other articles. NURSES ON OUR OWN is available at Amazon.com

Karon has since diversified her career, created a huge mega business utilizing the skills of hundreds of Nurses in many areas. She also creates and produces global television shows for the Consumer called, Outspoken with Karon. They can be seen by anyone at Ustream.tv Enter Outspoken with Karon in the search box or click on all broadcasts on the bottom of the page and enter. She has shown the expansive knowledge and assistance a Nurse can provide to the public through her varied experiences and philanthropic efforts. There are exciting and lightening stories about patients, Doctors, hospitals and even private detectives and celebrities. This is a book of obstacles and success for men and women=nurses or not.

Karon Gibson RN is an entrepreneur, consultant, motivational speaker and educator. She is on the advisory committee for Nursing and Business at Rasmussen College. She is a member of the prestigious Committee of 200 an international women's organization of successful preeminent business leaders.
