

benefiting CHOC Children's

November 14, 2010 • 2:00-5:00pm

Kids meet their favorite young celebrities and play games to win prizes for CHOC patients!

Kids Help Children benefiting CHOC Children's Hospital at the Hilton Anaheim is a toy drive and fundraiser with a fun celebrity twist. Families gather friends and come to a unique and fun-packed Sunday afternoon! Children will get autographs and pictures with their favorite stars and enjoy performances by Ariana Grande ("Cat" of Nickelodeon's Victorious), Savvy & Mandy (Radio Disney) and Orange County's own Madi Wackerman of OCHSA. No need to bring a toy – children will earn tickets by participating in interactive games that will be redeemable for prizes for themselves and the children of CHOC. To celebrate the good work they're doing, attending children will be treated to kid-friendly refreshments and all kinds of other good fun, such as: a red carpet arrival, electronic games, balloons, bounce houses, face painting, magicians and plenty of surprises!

Adult tickets are $25.00

Child tickets are $15.00
