the binky bib

Why would you need a binky bib?

- * Now you'll always know where your child's pacifier has been.
- * This wonderful bib will prevent a pacifier from falling on the ground and becoming dirty and unsanitary. This can be especially problematic when there isn't clean water and soap to wash with, yet your baby NEEDS that binky.
- * The child is able to independently retrieve the pacifier. You can now sit back and watch that awesome hand-eye coordination!
- * It also catches all that lovely drool, leaving outfits perfectly clean.
- * designer fabric on one side and terry on the other --IT'S REVERSIBLE!
- * lavender sachet included

“Just think, no more reaching to the backseat at the next red light in an attempt to find the lost binky on the floor of the car for your crying baby. Your baby will happily entertain herself while you drive!”

These days you want to keep that pacifier clean.

~nursing pillows~
