

NEWS RELEASE
MORE INFO, CONTACT: SAVOY COMMUNICATIONS
BETSYANN FAIELLA 310.283.2415
bafaiella@mac.com

Jan Daley CD Release:
Where There's Hope –A Tribute to the Love Songs From Bob Hope's Legacy

Hollywood - April 28 - Encore Music Presents Records announces the release of a new recording from Jan Daley. 'Where There's Hope -A Tribute to the Love Songs From Bob Hope's Legacy,' was recorded by Ms. Daley with Les Brown Jr.'s Band of Renown, and produced by Brown for Rayburt Productions. The CD features music from Bob Hope's Hollywood and Broadway career, including Cole Porter's 'You Do Something to Me,' 'I Can't Get Started' by Vernon Duke and Ira Gershwin, and Hope's signature song, 'Thanks For The Memory' by Leo Robin and Ralph Grainger. Ms. Daley toured with Hope as the singing star of The Bob Hope Christmas Tour, which included performing for 100,000 troops in Viet Nam and around the world. She conceived her tribute to the beloved, late funny man when she was asked by the Hope family to sing "Thanks For The Memory" (with special lyrics) at Hope's funeral service. 'Where There's Hope' also includes several original songs by Ms. Daley.

"Her voice matches her looks—in every sense, a knockout."... Billboard

"Beauty, sex appeal and top talent...a good bet for top lining all mediums." ... Variety

Jan Daley is a prolific singer/actress/songwriter and a Los Angeles native who began her career in regional theater. She broke into television early, on iconic vehicles like The Tonight Show and The Merv Griffin Show, and starred in many musical specials for television and the series "Here Come The Stars." Her first gig in Las Vegas was with Louis Armstrong, and she has been the opening act for many luminaries including Don Rickles, David Brenner and the late Rodney Dangerfield. She has appeared in series television, films and in over 150 television commercials. As a songwriter, Jan has written all the music for a Jimmy Webb house music project; her songs appear on Kathy Smith's Walking Workout CDs. She recently completed a six month run starring in 'The Follies' in Branson, followed by 'And Then She Wrote' with Peter Marshall and Mimi Hines and the Broadway bound 'Showgirl on 52nd Street.' Ms. Daley has recorded five albums, the latest being 'Where There's Hope.'

In 2001, producer Les Brown Jr. became the full-time leader of the Band of Renown, which Les Brown Sr. founded in 1938. Les Brown Jr.'s Band of Renown performs throughout the world and has a regular big band show in Branson, Mo. Les, who also hosts a national radio show on the Music Of Your Life network, was a television actor in the 1960s (Gunsmoke, General Hospital, Gilligan's Island), and a rock musician before becoming a producer and band leader. He founded Encore Music Presents Records with long time music manager and producer, Howard Wolf, dedicated to bringing back music and artists who deserve an encore. They will be releasing several new recordings soon in 2010.

For additional information on Encore Music Presents, visit:

www.EncoreMusicPresents.com

Encore Music Presents Records, LLC, 2550 E. Desert Inn Road #221, Las Vegas, NV 89121

For Press inquiries, call Betsyann Faiella at Savoy Communications
310.283.2415 or email bafaiella@mac.com

Track List and CD Info on Page 2.

-more-

Jan Daley

CD: Where There's Hope –A Tribute to the Love Songs From Bob Hope's Legacy
w/Les Brown Jr.'s Band of Renown

Track List:

- 1 Thanks For The Memory (Reprise) by Leo Robin - Ralph Grainger
- 2 It's De-Lovely by Cole Porter
- 3 But Beautiful by Johnny Burke - James Van Heusen
- 4 I Can't Get Started by Vernon Duken - Ira Gershwin
- 5 Medley: What Is It About Your Lips? and Moonlight Becomes You
Jan Daley; Johnny Burke - James Van Heusen
- 6 That Old Black Magic by Johnny Mercer - Harold Arlen
- 7 You Do Something To Me by Cole Porter
- 8 I Won't Dance by Otto Harbach - Jerome Kern
- 9 I Fall In Love With You by Arthur Altman - Frank Loesser - Manning Sherwin
- 10 Now Don't Give Me That Look by Jan Daley
- 11 Medley: Two Sleepy People and Hit The Road To Dreamland
Frank Loesser - Hoagy Carmichael; Harold Arlen - Johnny Mercer
- 12 Medley: Smoke Gets In Your Eyes and How Will It Ever End?
Otto Harbach - Jerome Kern; Jan Daley
- 13 Thanks For The Memory by Leo Robin - Ralph Grainger

Additional Lyrics for "Thanks For The Memory" (Reprise) by Jan Daley

Produced by Les Brown, Jr. for Rayburt Productions

Executive Producers: Howard B. Wolf & Pat Lynn-Paterson

Orchestrations: John Raczka

Recorded and Mixed at The Mansion in Branson, MO by engineer Danny Stone

Re-Mix: The Mansion by Les Brown, Jr. and Danny Stone

Mastered by John Raney for Raney Studios, Arkansas

Musicians

Piano and Keyboards: John Raczka

Bass: Steve Charlson

Drums: Ryan Hurn

Guitar: Bogie Bohinc (Solo on "But Beautiful"), Mike Cathcart

Trumpets: Don Smith, Doyle Miller, Jay DaVersa (Solo on "But Beautiful")

Trombones: Carl Hose, Bill Hartman

Alto Sax & Clarinet: Archie Wheeler, Mike Carroll (Alto Solo on "It's DeLovely")

Tenor Sax, Clarinet and Tenor Solos: Randy Hamm

Baritone Sax, Bass Clarinet: Dave Napier

Flutes: Archie Wheeler, Bill Caldwell

Percussion: Pete Generous

French Horns: Lisa Casey, Richard Ruhe

Harp: Nancy Dygert

Violins: Carol L. Harrison, Tina Sibley, Aleksis Zarins

Viola: Kirsten Weiss

Cello: Barbara Gasaway

Accordion: Dan Christian

Jan Daley Portraits: Dana Patrick

Historical Photos: Jan Daley Archives

Art Direction and Package Design: Doug Haverly for Art & Soul

© 2010 Encore Music Presents Records, LLC All Rights reserved

###