Marriott Plaza Hotel Buenos Aires Opens Official Polo Season with Special Hotel Package

The Marriott hotel celebrates the popular Argentinean sport with discounts at polo shops, breakfast buffet and deluxe accommodations.

Buenos Aires, Argentina (11/08/10) – Every spring, the country of Argentina celebrates the opening season of one of its favorite sport: polo. The sport has been popular in Argentina since the 19th Century and the country is one of the few in the world with a professional polo league. The Marriott Plaza Hotel Buenos Aires welcomes polo enthusiasts who travel to Buenos Aires in anticipation for the polo season. To welcome the beginning of the season, the Marriott Plaza Hotel has assembled an Official Polo Season Package. This special, which is available now until December 28, 2010, includes a daily breakfast buffet for two in La Brasserie restaurant, a Marriott Plaza Hotel centenary book, 20% discounts at La Martina Polo shops and deluxe accommodations. Fans of polo who are looking for a Buenos Aires vacation should take advantage of this offer online at the Marriott Plaza Hotel Buenos Aires specials page.

Argentina's love for polo came to a fever in 1924, when an Argentinean polo team obtained the gold medal at the Olympic Games. Since that time, the country has fallen in love with the sport. While some may perceive the sport as too expensive to try themselves, the actual cost is far less than most people realize. Furthermore, when guests stay at the Marriott Buenos Aires hotel, they can take advantage of even more savings with a discount to the polo shops. Of course, watching the fast-moving sport from the spectator seat is perfectly acceptable as well!

Whether traveling for a Buenos Aires vacation or to cheer on a polo team, there is no better time of year to visit Argentina. Visitors and polo enthusiasts looking for a place need look no further than the Marriott Plaza Hotel. No other luxury Buenos Aires hotel offers the service, accommodations and hotel specials.
