CASAMAGNA MARRIOTT AND JW MARRIOTT CANCUN RESORTS OPEN NEW WEDDING CHAPEL

Cancun Resorts offer destination weddings and the ability to perform Catholic wedding ceremonies.

Cancun, Mexico (11/10/10) – A wedding is already a special day, but some choose to make the day even more special by having their wedding take place in an exotic locale. Cancun destination weddings have always been a popular choice for betrothed couples. Now the JW Marriott Cancun and the CasaMagna Marriott Cancun Resorts offer Catholic couples another option for a Cancun wedding. These two Cancun Hotels have opened a brand new Catholic chapel, accessible for guests at either resort.

The Catholic Wedding chapel at the JW Marriott Cancun resort can accommodate up to 80 attendees and also features a separate area for live music. This air-conditioned space also provides views of the Caribbean, a perfect backdrop to a bride and groom. Witnesses to the ceremony will be treated to an unforgettable experience. After the ceremony the wedding party can enjoy the beauty of the Caribbean. The bride and groom won't have to go far to enjoy a honeymoon, either. The pristine beaches of Cancun and the turquoise water of the Caribbean are the perfect place for newlyweds to begin a new chapter together.

Both the bride and groom and attendees will be treated to the Marriott hallmark hospitality. The wedding party will be assisted by a Marriott wedding and event planner, whose goal is to make sure the wedding ceremony, runs without a hitch. Furthermore, the Marriott resorts in Cancun work closely with the local Catholic Church to make sure the bride and groom enjoy a proper ceremony.

Guests should contact the Cancun resorts' wedding and event planner today and start designing their dream wedding in Cancun. Those who wish to use the Marriott Cancun hotels' wedding chapel do not necessarily have to be a guest at the resort. For more information contact Mariel Camara at mariel.camara@marriotthotels.com
