JW MARRIOTT QUITO HOTEL INTRODUCES FLAMENCO SHOW AND NEW DON PORFIRIO RESTAURANT

JW Marriott Hotel features traditional flamenco performances and great drink specials at newly opened Mexican restaurant.

Quito, Ecuador (11/19/10) – Flamenco dancing is one of the most visually stunning dance styles in the world. The whirl of a long dress, the elegant movements and the hypnotic music has drawn in crowds across the world, from Spain to Cuba and now the JW Marriott Quito Hotel. Flamenco dancing has come to the hotel's Exchange Lobby Bar & Sushi Bar. In addition to the new flamenco show, guests can sample great Mexican food and drinks at the newly opened Don Porfirio restaurant. Now guests at the hotel can enjoy great entertainment while enjoying the finest tapas, tequilas and sangria. The flamenco dancing can be found at the hotel every Friday from November 5 to December 17, from 7 PM to 11 PM. To learn more about the hotel visit the JW Marriott Quito Hotel website.

While most bars typically only celebrate happy hour with drink specials, the newly opened Don Porfirio Restaurant at the Quito luxury hotel goes one step further. That's not to say the Mexican restaurant doesn't offer great specials. Patrons of Don Porfirio can enjoy endless tapas and sangria for only $29 USD per person. If sangria doesn't sound appealing, guests can also take advantage of happy hour margaritas. Every Tuesday through Friday from 6 PM to 10 PM, guests can sip on these satisfying frozen drinks for only $6.10 USD at this new Quito restaurant.

Visitors to Ecuador have many options when searching for a Quito bar, but none offer the drink and food specials and great entertainment like the Don Porfirio restaurant.
