

Bethany Richerson, PT, DPT, OCS

I. General Information

ProRehab PC
702 Barret Blvd Suite B
Henderson KY 42420

Work: 270-831-2570
Cell: 270-860-7040

Physical Therapy Licensure:
Kentucky License No. 004243
Indiana License No. 05007579A

II. Education:

| Year | Degree | Major-Subspecialty | Institution |
|-----------|------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 2008-2009 | Doctorate | Physical Therapy | University of Kentucky |
| 1999-2001 | Masters | Physical Therapy | University of Louisville |
| 1999-2001 | Bachelors | Health Science in Pre-PT | University of Louisville |
| 1995-1999 | Did not Complete | Biology | Western Kentucky University |

Continuing Education Courses:

| Course Name | Year | Location |
|-------------|------|----------|
|-------------|------|----------|

Kettlebell 101-by Thomas Knox, PT-ProRehab Clinic in Evansville, IN

ProRehab SFMA/FMS Level 1-by Phil Plisky,DSc, PT-ProRehab Clinic in Evansville, IN

Evidence-based Examination and Selected Interventions for Patients with Lower Extremity Disorders-by Dr Michael Walker PT-ProRehab Clinic in Evansville, IN

Wound Care: A New Perspective-by Sherle Niner-2007- UofL Hospital in Louisville, KY

Evidence-Based Exam and Selected Interventions for Patients with Cervical Spine Disorders-by Dr Robert Wainner, PT-2007-ProRehab Clinic in Evansville, IN

Evidence-Based Exam and Interventions for Patient with Lumbopelvic spine and Hip disorders-by John Childs, PT—2007— ProRehab Clinic in Evansville, IN

APTA CI Education and credentialing program—2006— Unv. Of Evansville, Evansville, IN

Evidence-Based Exam and Intervention for Patients with Lumbopelvic spine and hip disorders- by Josh Clealand, PT—2006—Bellarmine Univ., Louisville, KY

Evidence-Based Approach Dx and treatment with Musculoskeletal shoulder dysfunctions-by Lori Michener, PT—2006—ProRehab Clinic in Evansville, IN

Evidence-Based course of Differential Dx of Complex shoulder Disorders—2005—KPTA Conference, Louisville, KY

Instructor Training of Prenatal and Postpartum Exercise by Elizabeth Noble-PT—2005—Maimi, FL

Patella-Femoral/ACL In service-by Adrick Harrison, PT- 2005— ProRehab, Evansville, IN

The Pelvic Floor: Functional Anatomy and Application for Lumbopelvic stability and Pelvic Floor Pain Step by Step: Evaluation, Education and Exercise-by Kathy Wallace, PT—2004—San Diego, CA

Advances in the Knee and Shoulder by Cincinatti Sports Medicine Research and Education Foundation—2003—Hilton Head, South Carolina

Introduction to Pelvic Floor Rehab-by Cindy Neville, PT—2002—Jacksonville, FL

III. Professional PT Work Experiences

August 2002 to Present- employee of ProRehab, PC – Partner and Physical Therapist- Center Manager

Aug 2002- Feb 2005—employed by Henderson Orthopedic-Outpatient Physical Therapist-PRN work

Jan 2002-July 2002- employed by HEALTHSOUTH- Outpatient Physical Therapist

IV. Clinical Education Activities:

APTA Credentialed Clinical Instructor

Assume the Role of CI in my facility associated with University of Evansville and Vincennes University.

V. Classroom or Laboratory Teaching Activity—N/A

VI. Honors/Awards

Awarded Board Certification Clinical Specialization on Orthopedic Physical Therapy—June 2007

VII. Professional Association Activity and Public Service

Member of the APTA and KPTA 2001-present

Associated with the Orthopedic Section of APTA 2001-present

Member of the Henderson Junior Women's League Association 2002- 2007

XIII. Publication or Presentations:--

YMCA- Silver Sneakers- Common Disorders of the Shoulder- November 2010